Dear Brothers,

Last week, we posted the final installment of our series, Good News from God for the Sons of the Kingdom. The article is entitled Good News – A Message for All People. You can find the link to the article on the Update Page of our website at www.AnointedJW.org.

In the article, we explain why Jesus' message is called "good news." We discuss Christianity's relation to the good news. And we conclude with suggestions on what we do with the true good news of the kingdom. We also present an interesting idea concerning Jesus' words at Matthew 24:14, where he is recorded as saying:

"And this Good News of the kingdom will be preached in all the inhabited earth for a witness to all the nations; and then the end will come." – Matthew 24:14

We know that many people believe Jesus is saying that once the good news is preached, God will bring an end to the system. However, we suggest an alternative view. What if Jesus was saying that once the good news is preached, the message itself will bring an end to sorrow and confusion, an end to war and suffering, and an end to spiritual dysfunction? This seems like a more likely understanding since Jesus is called "the Prince of Peace." And we can certainly see people of all nations who respond to the true good news 'turning their swords into pruning shears' so to speak. Of course, only time will tell and we will all have to wait to see how prophecy and the symbolism in the book of Revelation will be fulfilled.

But whatever the meaning, one thing we know for sure. The actual, authentic, plain and open teachings of Jesus are paramount. They are clear and unambiguous. And any interpretation or teaching that conflicts with Jesus' plain and open teachings should be discarded.

We leave you with that thought, and look forward to your response to the unmistakable witness God's spirit gave the organization on March 26, 2013.
