Dear Brothers,

Yesterday, we posted a new article entitled Converting ‘Pauls’ into ‘Sauls.’ The article discusses the phenomenon of people who were once preachers, but who turned into persecutors against the religion they were once associated with. You can find a link to the article on the Update Page of our website: www.AnointedJW.org.

The article points out that the persecutors are simply mimicking what they learned from the religious organization they were associated with. When a religion condemns and judges other religions, it creates people who condemn and judge others. And when errors are discovered in their own religious association, they turn their condemnation toward it. The article encourages people to break the cycle of judging and condemning, and become more Christ-like in their response to error.

In harmony with the principles outlined in the article, it is always with love and concern that we write these words to you brothers. Words that may cause an agitation in your spirit, but words that must be spoken with boldness and without fear.

You brothers, who have many years of service among you, are grieving the spirit of our Lord. (Ephesians 4:30) Even when it has been clearly made manifest in your very own spirit, you still refuse to teach the truth, that all are welcomed in the heavenly kingdom to enjoy the blessings of our Father and your Father. (John 1:12) He has not been, nor will He ever be, partial in His will toward any of His creation. So it is with a sincere heart that we continue without letup to implore you men, who direct the individuals in your congregations, to turn back to the plain and open teachings of Jesus and reconsider your imperfect interpretations of the symbols and signs of prophecy.

Turn to what is actual, factual and true so that all who desire to follow the Christ may be allowed to declare that the Kingdom of the Heavens is the future home of all who become sealed in their conviction to survive this life in the flesh. And that they may do this not in the shadows, but boldly out in the open.

For this end, you are in our constant prayers, especially those among you who are having a wrestling in the spirit. May all of you have the courage to course correct so that the nearly 8 million people who follow your direction do not fall into a pit.

Your Brothers and Ambassadors for Christ,
